

Pete Watson, Retired Executive Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Greif, Inc.

Pete Watson is the former Executive Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Greif, Inc., a publicly traded, $6.3 billion global industrial packaging company. He served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Greif, Inc., from 2015 - 2021. He is a former Wake Forest football coach. Pete and his wife, Linda, have relocated back to the Winston-Salem community.

Pete currently serves on the Board of Directors of Canusa Paper Packaging and the Board of Trustees at Springfield College. He previously served on the Board of Directors of OhioHealth, Founder's Board of Leadership at the Fisher College of Business at Ohio State University. Pete is the past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Forest and Paper Association, and Fibre Box Association.

Pete holds a master's and bachelor's degree from Springfield College in Massachusetts.